

Create Exclusivity and Increased Value By Personalizing Your Packaging

Our Digital printing process treats each label as a unique graphic. We enable our clients to "personalize" each label with unique numbers, codes and, or unique graphics (images). Protect and promote your product exclusivity with serial/limited edition numbering, regionalizing, special affiliations, versioning, winery vineyard designations, brand security coding, and tiered packaging graphics.

Our clients also use this flexibility to customize affordable small lot sizes of labels. This enables highly targeted private labeling, the establishment of packaging that more clearly differentiates product categories, and the creation of special packages for multiple sizes.

Imagine offering a custom label for each distribution channel such as hotels, restaurants, college bookstores, weddings, corporate events, and regional retail chains. Our small quantity capability opens the door for new marketing opportunities! Please contact us and we can review all possibilities for your marketing efforts.
